

Camp Fire Girls Conduct Annual Membership Drive

These must be hard days for youngsters. Instead of talk of peace and security, they hear their elders constantly fretting about the future.

But are our boys and girls fearful? Are they floundering? Are they suffering "growing pains" more intense than those which their parents felt?

We have evidence that for at least some of the young girls in this area the answer is a resounding "No!" These are the Camp Fire Girls who, instead of waiting for adults to build that better world for them, are using their minds, hearts and imaginations to cement warm friendships the world over for themselves and for their country.

Camp Fire Girls here and across the nation are very busy these days filling Christmas stockings with sweets, games, Yuletide decorations, handkerchiefs, socks and other useful gifts. Between now and Oct. 15, these cheerful misses will mail the stockings to boys and girls in almost every country in the world. "We're sending Santa overseas," the Camp Fire Girls will tell you.

By extending the warm hand of friendship to children in other lands, our Camp Fire Girls are making a positive contribution toward a more stable world. At the same time, they are gaining something perhaps even more important in terms of their growing up. We mean that essential feeling of achievement

BETSY ROSS CLUB PLANS COMPLETE FOR BAZAAR TONITE

Members of Betsy Ross Star Club are completing last-minute preparations for their ham dinner and bazaar set for this evening in Masonic Temple. Everyone is cordially invited.

The ladies plan to serve from 5 until 7 o'clock. Tickets at $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children will be available at the door, according to Edna Babcock, worthy matron of Eastern Star, who is serving as general chairman of the bazaar.

Among the beautiful articles to be offered for sale are embroidered and lace-edged pillow slips, luncheon cloths, men's linen handkerchiefs with hand-rolled hems; aprons, tea towels and many other useful and decorative pieces of needlework.

and of "belonging" — to the world community as well as to their local community.

Our young people need experiences like this if they are to mature into happy, useful citizens. It is reassuring to know that they can find them through membership in a youth-serving organization like the Camp Fire Girls, which provides constructive leisure-time activities for all girls between the ages of seven and 18.

The annual Membership March of the Camp Fire organization is now being conducted here and will continue through Nov. 30. It has a well-organized program based on these Seven Crafts: home, creative arts, outdoors, scientific frontiers, business, sports and games, and citizenship. Through the useful skills they acquire in these fields and the fun and friendships they share, Camp Fire Girls are preparing themselves to be successful homemakers and citizens of a democracy.

Mothers and fathers who want their daughters to possess the tools necessary for developing harmonious and satisfying lives will join in echoing the organization's Membership March slogan: "Be Friendly — Make Friends — Join the Camp Fire Girls!"

Interested persons are asked to call Mrs. Minot Rugg, Torrance 2433-J for information about local groups.

ALTAR SOCIETY POSTPONES CARD PARTY

The monthly card party to benefit St. Margaret Mary's Altar Society has been postponed for this month as it conflicts with the annual bazaar to be held Saturday and Sunday on the church grounds.

The monthly event falls on the fourth Saturday of each month. The next party will be held in October.

LATE VACATIONERS

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Barlow left Friday for a 10 days trip to Bishop and Reno. At Reno they plan to visit Mr. and Mrs. David Flett (Ellen Sleppey). En route home they will be guests of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Ament.

Essa Joan Suiter Tells Vows With R. F. Tomlin

At home at 20625 Elliot street are Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Tomlin Jr., whose marriage was solemnized in Gardena Christian Church in the presence of 175 wedding guests. Rev. W. W. Jewell, formerly of Torrance, officiated at the Friday evening ceremony.

The bride, the former Miss Essa Joan Suiter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Suiter, of 1130 W. 223rd street, was given in marriage by her father. She was beautifully attired in white slipper satin fashioned with lace yoke. A fingertip veil of bridal illusion completed her costume and she carried a heart-shaped bridal arrangement of carnations and stephanotis centered with a detachable orchid corsage.

Miss Janet Lowe attended as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce Franzen, of Torrance and Josephine Thornburgh, of Gardena. Leonard Tomlin attended the bridegroom as best man and ushers were Ray Arney and Andy Prince, of Gardena; Byron Suiter, Torrance and Philip Tomlin, Gardena.

Mrs. Betty Pope played the accompaniment for Mrs. Marilyn Sanders, who sang.

A reception in Fellowship Hall immediately followed the ceremony and later the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to Northern California and Santa Barbara.

Mrs. Tomlin was graduated from Torrance High School; her husband received his diploma from Gardena High School.

MOTHERSINGERS PREPARE FOR BUSY SEASON

Among the scheduled appearances of the Orange Street P.T.A. Mothersingers for the coming months will be at the 10th annual Harbor Festival of Arts which opens Saturday at Cabrillo Beach, San Pedro. The Mothersingers will be featured Sunday afternoon, Oct. 3.

The group, which won recognition throughout the entire harbor area last year, was featured on a number of civic programs as well as at their own association meetings.

With the leisure summer days now in the past, the Mothersingers numbering this year 20 active mothers, have swung into their regular rehearsals preparing for a busy musical season ahead.

Mrs. R. P. Kellogg opened her home Thursday night for one of the first rehearsals of the fall, which was followed by a business meeting.

The Mothersingers have been called upon to take part in the program for the annual P.T.A. carnival at Orange Street School the later part of October. A recent invitation was received by the group to sing before the Mothers' Club in Wilmington and Mrs. Robert E. Carson, San Pedro Civic and club leader, will feature them at the Community Sing at the Anderson Memorial building.

The Mothersingers will be in charge of this year's P.T.A. Founder's Day program at Orange Street P.T.A. in February presenting a 49ers show.

The highlight of the year will come when the group will again appear with 600 other Mothersingers of the state at the annual convention of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held this year in Los Angeles. Rehearsals for this event will begin early in January.

The group meets every Thursday evening at a home of one of the members.

SON-IN-LAW PASSES

Mr. and Mrs. William Creighton, of 2256 Torrance blvd., have returned from San Diego, where they were called by the death of their son-in-law, Lloyd Oliver Fallor, who had been hospitalized for the past three months.

GREEK PLAY TO START RUN AT BILTMORE 27th

Judith Anderson in "Medea" will come to the Biltmore Theatre, Los Angeles Sept. 27 for three weeks. Freely adapted from the tragedy of Euripides, "Medea" has provided Miss Anderson with her greatest success to date.

The 214 performances which she acted "Medea" in New York last season represents the longest continuous run a Greek play has ever achieved anywhere. Guthrie McClintic has restaged it and is sponsoring the nationwide tour.

The last time Miss Anderson made a coast-to-coast tour was in a play also directed by Mr. McClintic. It was "The Old Maid," which won the Pulitzer Prize of its season. Also under his direction she appeared in his production of "Divided by Three," was the Queen to John Gielgud's "Hamlet," and played Olga in Katharine Cornell's all-star revival of "The Three Sisters."

Opposite Miss Anderson is Henry Brandon as Jason, the hero whose faithlessness drives Medea to her swift and terrible revenge. The other principals are Hilda Vaughn as the Nurse, Mary Servoss as the first woman of Corinth, Bruce Gordon as Aegeus, head of the Athenian state, Frederic Worlock as Creon, ruler of Corinth and Theodore Marcuse as Jason's slave. Completing the cast are Don McHenry, Gene Lee, David Stollery, Marian Seldes, Martha Downs, Mary Adams, Fran Lee, Tom Thayer and Ray Kane.

The scenery by Ben Edwards and the costumes by Castillo are the same as for the Broadway run.

Women of Moose Are Represented at Convention

Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose, will be represented at the annual convention at San Diego Sept. 23-26, by Senior Regent Mrs. Elsie Smith. Reservations are being made by co-workers and their husbands for many of the dinners and other activities, according to Mary Caltri, publicity chairman.

SOUTH BAY CIVIC SYMPHONY ASS'N PLANS AUDITIONS

Before each audition session for young people, sponsored by the South Bay Civic Symphony Association at the La Mar Theatre in Manhattan Beach, conductor Leo Scheer will discuss "Musical Possibilities for the Youth of America." Mr. Scheer is founder and conductor of the San Diego Youth Symphony and has supervised music in the San Diego schools for the last 10 years. He is in charge of the night school department at the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music and Arts which is offering two full scholarships to the first prize winners, the best vocalist and instrumentalist, chosen from the auditions.

Auditions are scheduled for the afternoons of Monday through Friday, Oct. 4-8, at 3 p.m. Winners appear in the Nov. 4 concert of the South Bay Civic Symphony Association at Redondo Beach Union High School, Elyse Achle conducting.
